

True Colors Residence

267-269 W. 154th Street, New York, NY

Set to open its doors in Central Harlem in 2011, the True Colors Residence, a project of West End Intergenerational Residence and partners Cyndi Lauper and Lisa Barbaris, is the first permanent housing facility with support services specifically serving formerly homeless lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) youth aged 18-24 in New York City.

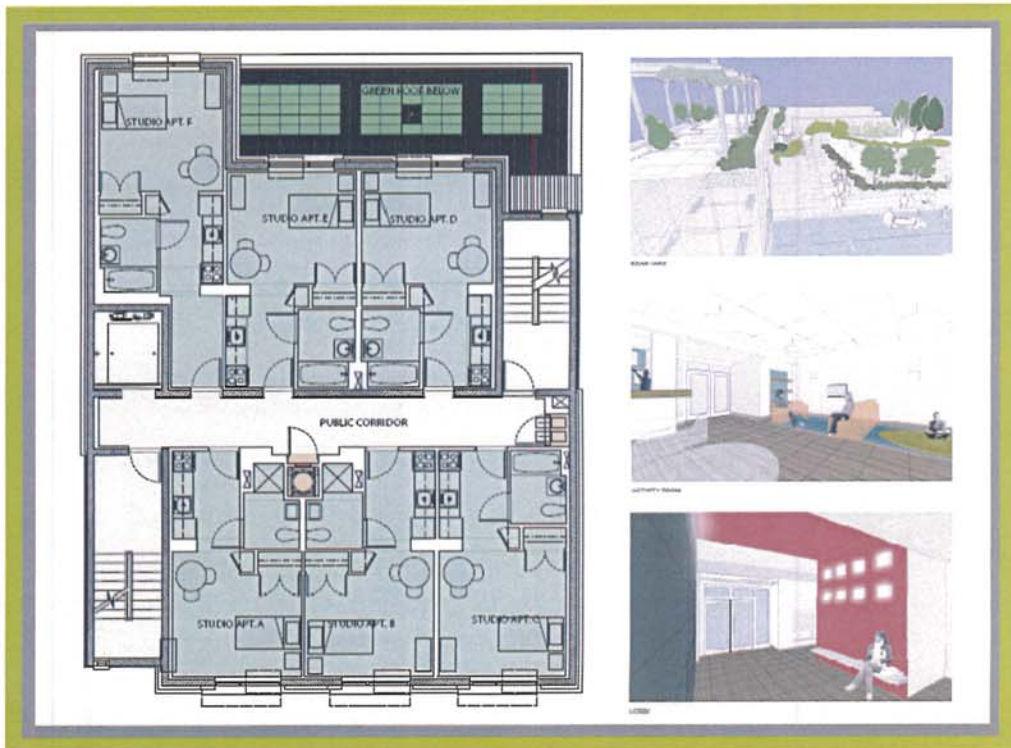

The Residence, a newly constructed, energy-efficient multifamily building, will house 30 studio apartments, each equipped with a kitchen and bathroom. Residents will have access to both indoor and outdoor community space, a computer lounge, small library, and laundry facilities.

Each resident will be responsible for paying affordable rent based on their income. Residents will receive ongoing assistance in obtaining employment best suited to their individual interests and skills. Support services, available on a voluntary basis, will include life skills coaching, counseling, and medical services among others.

“Gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender youth living on the streets and in foster care need our support more than ever. In New York City, the True Colors Residence is going to play a big role in providing these young people with the leg up and encouragement they need. I am honored to be a part of this important project.”

– Cyndi Lauper, Grammy Award Winning Performing Artist and True Colors Partner
